On this day, the Court considered Plaintiff's ex parte application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining Merchant Storefronts and Defendants' Assets with the Financial Institutions; 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; 4) an order authorizing bifurcated and alternative service and 5) an order authorizing expedited discovery against Defendants, Third Party Service Providers and Financial Institutions in light of Defendants' intentional and willful offerings for sale and/or sales of Counterfeit Products.¹ A complete list of Defendants is attached hereto as Schedule A, which also includes links to Defendants' Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings. Having reviewed the Application, Declarations of Jennifer De Marco and Danielle S. Yamali, along with exhibits attached thereto and other evidence submitted in support thereof, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Plaintiff is a leading developer, producer, marketer, and distributor of quality, innovative consumer products that Plaintiff promotes and sells throughout the United States and the world through major retailers and well-known mass retail outlets, including, but not limited to: Wal-Mart, Target and Bed Bath & Beyond, as well as through its retail customers' websites and a network of international distributors, among other channels of trade.

2. One of Plaintiff's most popular and successful products is Baseboard Buddy, a multi-use cleaning duster that uses both a shape-adjusting head and Swivel technologies to clean at every angle and design.

3. Plaintiff is the exclusive licensee of the Baseboard Buddy Mark, U.S. Trademark Registration 4,016,645 for "BASEBOARD BUDDY" for hand-held baseboard cleaning implements, namely, a manually-operated handled implement, namely, a cleaning pad formed with a baseboard cleaning head in Class 21, which is owned by Michele I. Goodman;

4. The Baseboard Buddy Mark is currently in use in commerce in connection with the Baseboard Buddy Product;

5. In addition, Plaintiff also owns the registered copyrights related to the Baseboard Buddy Product. For example, Plaintiff owns the Baseboard Buddy Works, including U.S. Copyright Reg. Nos.: PA 2-058-097 covering the Baseboard Buddy Commercial, VA 2-071-475 covering the Baseboard Buddy Instruction Manual, VA 2-070-567 covering the Baseboard Buddy Packaging and VA 2-071-468 covering the Baseboard Buddy Website;

6. Defendants are manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale or Counterfeit Product through Defendants' User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts with Alibaba and/or AliExpress (see Schedule A for links to Defendants' Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings);

7. Alibaba and AliExpress are online marketplace and e-commerce platforms that allow manufacturers and other third-party merchants, like Defendants, to advertise, distribute, offer for sale and/or sell and ship their retail products originating from China, among other locations, directly to consumers worldwide and specifically to consumers residing in the U.S., including New York;

8. Defendants are not, nor have they ever been, authorized distributors or licensees of the Baseboard Buddy Product. No one other than the Baseboard Buddy Mark owner, Plaintiff, its authorized licensees and distributors are authorized to manufacture, import, export, advertise, offer for sale, or sell any goods utilizing the Baseboard Buddy Mark or Baseboard Buddy Works;

9. Plaintiff is likely to prevail on its Lanham Act, copyright and related common law claims at trial;

10. As a result of Defendants' infringements, Plaintiff, as well as consumers, are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiff's Application for ex parte relief is granted:

- a. Defendants have offered for sale and sold substandard Counterfeit Products that infringe the Baseboard Buddy Works and/or Baseboard Buddy Mark;
- b. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that more Counterfeit Products will appear in the marketplace; that consumers may be misled, confused and disappointed by the quality of these Counterfeit Products, resulting in injury to Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for its Baseboard Buddy Product; and
- Plaintiff has well-founded fears that if it proceeds on notice to Defendants on this c. Application, Defendants will: (i) secret, conceal, destroy, alter, sell-off, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with Counterfeit Products or other goods that infringe the Baseboard Buddy Works and/or Baseboard Buddy Mark, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (ii) inform their suppliers and others of Plaintiff's claims with the result being that those suppliers and others may also secret, conceal, sell-off or otherwise dispose of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Baseboard Buddy Works and/or Baseboard Buddy Mark, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (iii) secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from its sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Baseboard Buddy Works and/or Baseboard Buddy Mark and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control and/or (iv) open new User Accounts and Merchant Storefront under new or different names and continue to offer for sale and sell Counterfeit Products with little to no consequence;

11. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the Baseboard Buddy Works and/or Baseboard Buddy Mark and to its reputations if a temporary restraining order is not issued;

12. Public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to its Baseboard Buddy Works and/or Baseboard Buddy Mark, and to protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by Defendants' passing off of their substandard Counterfeit Products as Baseboard Buddy Product;

Plaintiff has not publicized its request for a temporary restraining order in any way;
 Service on Defendants via electronic means is reasonably calculated to result in proper notice to Defendants;

15. If Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Baseboard Buddy Works and/or Baseboard Buddy Mark. Therefore, good cause exists for granting Plaintiff's request for an asset restraining order. It typically takes the Financial Institutions a minimum of five (5) days after service of the Order to locate, attach and freeze Defendants' Assets and/or Defendants' Financial Accounts and it is anticipated that it will take the Third Party Service Providers a minimum of five (5) days to freeze Defendants' Merchant Storefronts. As such, the Court allows enough time for Plaintiff to serve the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers with this Order, and for the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers to comply with the Paragraphs I(B)(1) through I(B)(2) and I(C)(1) of this Order, respectively, before requiring service on Defendants;

16. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiff the records and documents relating to Defendants' manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products. Therefore, Plaintiff has good cause to be granted expedited discovery.
