On this day, the Court considered Plaintiff's ex parte application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining Merchant Storefronts and Defendants' Assets with the Financial Institutions; 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; 4) an order authorizing bifurcated and alternative service and 5) an order authorizing expedited discovery against Defendants, Third Party Service Providers and Financial Institutions in light of Defendants' intentional and willful offerings for sale and/or sales of Counterfeit Products.<sup>1</sup> A complete list of Defendants is attached hereto as Schedule A, which also includes links to Defendants' Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings. Having reviewed the Application, Declarations of Karine Ahton and Jason M. Drangel, along with exhibits attached thereto and other evidence submitted in support thereof, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Moonbug is a global entertainment company that creates and distributes inspiring and engaging stories to expand kids' worlds and minds under their own popular brands, such as Cocomelon, Little Baby Bum, Arpo and The Sharksons, as well as in partnership with prominent children's entertainment brands including Mattel Inc., Nickelodeon, Procter & Gamble and LEGO.

2. Moonbug recently acquired the intellectual property assets for the popular Blippi children's program featuring the main character Blippi – a fun, energetic entertainer known for his goofy mannerisms, signature blue and orange outfit and educational videos. Blippi's popularity stems from interactive videos exploring the world through the eyes of a child while teaching them valuable skills such as counting, learning colors and much more.

3. Established in 2014, the Blippi YouTube Channel now has 12.4 million subscribers and has surpassed 9 billion views. The Blippi Content can also be found on other streaming platforms such as Hulu, Roku and Amazon Prime Video.

4. In addition to streaming content, Blippi has also developed a variety of consumer products, such as t-shirts, backpacks and other gear, which is sold through the official Blippi store at <https://shop.moonbug.com/collections/blippi>.

5. The Blippi Products typically retail for between $1.99-39.99.

6. Moonbug recently acquired all right, title and interest to U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 5,333,930 and 5,335,209 through assignments from Kideo, Inc.

7. Through this recent acquisition, Moonbug has gained significant common law trademark and other rights in its Blippi Marks and Blippi Products through its predecessors' use, advertising and promotion.

8. For example, Moonbug now owns the following U.S. Trademark Registration Nos.: 5,333,930 for "BLIPPI" for a variety of goods in Class 28 and 5,335,209 for "BLIPPI" for a variety of goods in Class 25. Moonbug also applied for the registration of “”, which is covered by U.S. Trademark Serial Application No. 79/297,577 for goods in Classes 9, 16, 25, 28 and 41.

9. Defendants are manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale or Counterfeit Product through Defendants' User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts with Wish (see Schedule A for links to Defendants' Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings).

10. Wish is an online marketplace and e-commerce platform, which allows manufacturers and other third-party merchants, like Defendants, to advertise, distribute, offer for sale, sell and ship their retail products, which, upon information and belief, primarily originate from China, directly to consumers worldwide and specifically to consumers residing in the U.S., including New York.

11. Defendants are not, nor have they ever been, authorized distributors or licensees of the Blippi Products. Neither Plaintiff, nor any of Plaintiff's authorized agents, have consented to Defendants' use of the Blippi Marks, nor has Plaintiff consented to Defendants' use of marks that are confusingly similar to, identical to and constitute a counterfeiting or infringement of the Blippi Marks.

12. Plaintiff is likely to prevail on its Lanham Act and related common law claims at trial.

13. As a result of Defendants' infringements, Plaintiff, as well as consumers, are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiff's Application for ex parte relief is granted:

- a. Defendants have offered for sale and sold substandard Counterfeit Products that infringe the Blippi Marks;
- b. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that more Counterfeit Products will appear in the marketplace; that consumers may be misled, confused and disappointed by the quality of these Counterfeit Products, resulting in injury to Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for its Blippi Products; and
- c. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that if it proceeds on notice to Defendants on this Application, Defendants will: (i) secret, conceal, destroy, alter, sell-off, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with Counterfeit Products or other goods that infringe the Blippi Marks, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (ii) inform their suppliers and others of Plaintiff's claims with the result being that those suppliers and others may also secret, conceal, sell-off or otherwise dispose of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Blippi Marks, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (iii) secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from its sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Blippi Marks and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control and/or (iv) open new User Accounts and Merchant Storefront under new or different names and continue to offer for sale and sell Counterfeit Products with little to no consequence.

14. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the Blippi Marks and to its reputations if a temporary restraining order is not issued.

15. Public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to its Blippi Marks, and to protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by Defendants' passing off of their substandard Counterfeit Products as Blippi Products.

16. Plaintiff has not publicized its request for a temporary restraining order in any way.

17. Service on Defendants via electronic means is reasonably calculated to result in proper notice to Defendants.

18. If Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Blippi Marks. Therefore, good cause exists for granting Plaintiff's request for an asset restraining order. It typically takes the Financial Institutions a minimum of five (5) days after service of the Order to locate, attach and freeze Defendants' Assets and/or Defendants' Financial Accounts and it is anticipated that it will take the Third Party Service Providers a minimum of five (5) days to freeze Defendants' Merchant Storefronts. As such, the Court allows enough time for Plaintiff to serve the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers with this Order, and for the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers to comply with the Paragraphs I(B)(1) through I(B)(2) and I(C)(1) of this Order, respectively, before requiring service on Defendants.

19. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiff the records and documents relating to Defendants' manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products. Therefore, Plaintiff has good cause to be granted expedited discovery.

ORDER

C. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, as sufficient cause has been shown, that the Third Party Service Providers are hereby restrained and enjoined from engaging in any of the following acts or omissions for fourteen (14) days from the date of this order, and for such further period as may be provided by order of the Court:

- 1) within five (5) days after receipt of service of this Order, providing services to Defendants, Defendants' User Accounts and Defendants' Merchant Storefronts, including, without limitation, continued operation of Defendants' User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts; and

- 2) knowingly instructing any other person or business entity to engage in any of the activities referred to in subparagraphs I(A)(1) through I(A)(7), I(B)(1) through I(B)(2) and I(C)(1) above.
