COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Avus Design, Inc. (“Avus” or “Plaintiff”), by and through its undersigned attorneys, for its Complaint against the Entities identified in Annex A (individually and collectively referred to as “Defendants”), herein allege:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action for trademark infringement and counterfeiting pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1114 and false designation of origin and unfair competition pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), and design patent infringement pursuant to 35 U.S. Code § 271 against Defendants for unlawful use of Avus’s LOCK-JAW trademarks and design patent on and in conjunction with unauthorized sales of counterfeit products.

2. Defendants are individuals and entities who trade on Avus’s goodwill and sell and/or offer to sell counterfeit and unauthorized products through various “storefronts” via online retail websites.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This Court has jurisdiction of Avus's federal claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 1338(a).

4. Each Defendant runs a "storefront" accepting US Dollars through Alibaba, Ali Express, Amazon, DH Gate, eBay, Joom, Newegg, Shopify, or Wish website platforms through which each Defendant specifically targets residents in this judicial district by offering to sell and, upon information and belief, shipping infringing and/or counterfeit products to residents within the Northern District of Illinois, by: displaying infringing imagery in its product listings and/or using Plaintiff's registered trademark in its product listings. Thus each Defendant is committing, inter alia, trademark infringement and design patent infringement in this district.

5. Venue in the Northern District of Illinois is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because a substantial part of the events that give rise to the claim occur within this District, each Defendant has committed acts of infringement in and has significant contacts within this District, and each Defendant as delineated in Annex A is displaying infringing imagery in its product listings targeted at this District and/or are using, selling, or offering to sell the infringing and/or counterfeit mark in this District. In addition, on information and belief, each of the Defendants is a foreign entity or individual and "a defendant not resident in the United States may be sued in any judicial district . . . ." 28 U.S.C. § 1391(c)(3).

PARTIES

Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 are true and correct copies of the Certificates of Registration and pending application for the Lock-Jaw Trademarks.

12. The Lock-Jaw Trademarks have been and continue to be used exclusively by Avus.

13. The registrations for the Lock-Jaw Trademarks are valid, subsisting, and in full force and effect.

14. The registrations for the Lock-Jaw Trademarks constitutes prima facie evidence of their validity and of Avus's exclusive right to use the Lock-Jaw Trademarks pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1057(b).

15. The following chart lists the design patent asserted by Avus in this action (the "Design Patent"). A copy of the design patent registration is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

| Title                  | Status     | Reg. No. | Reg. Date |
|------------------------|------------|----------|-----------|
| Locking Barbell Collar | Registered | D780,860 | 3/7/2017  |

16. Avus is the exclusive licensee of all right, title and interest in the '860 patent entitled "Locking Barbell Collar." The '860 patent was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office on March 7, 2017.

17. Avus's design covered by the '860 patent is a collar which locks around a barbell. A photo of the design protected by the Design Patent (the "Design") and Avus's product are shown below:

18. The popularity of the Avus Design products have led to Avus Design receiving an abundance of positive reviews for the Avus Design products.

19. In view of Avus's efforts and the response of the marketplace to the Lock-Jaw products, the Lock-Jaw Trademarks and Design have become known throughout the United States, uniquely signifying to consumers that the products come from Avus.

20. Because the Lock-Jaw products have become popular and the Lock-Jaw Trademarks and Design are recognized by consumers, the Lock-Jaw products have been subject to widespread counterfeiting. Avus's investigation has revealed many online marketplace listings on platforms such as AliExpress, eBay, and Alibaba, including listings posted by Defendants, which offer for sale and, on information and belief, sell counterfeit Lock-Jaw goods to consumers in Illinois and offer to ship those products to Illinois.

The Defendants

19. On information and belief, Defendants are individuals and business entities who conduct business in the United States, including within Illinois, through their operation of interactive, online marketplaces and/or websites which offer for sale counterfeit Lock-Jaw goods and/or use Lock-Jaw's Design in advertising and selling counterfeit products.

20. On information and belief, based on similarities in the characteristics of some of the websites and counterfeit merchandise offered for sale, some of the Defendants are related or work together as part of a single enterprise to willfully make, distribute, offer for sale, and sell counterfeit products using the Lock-Jaw intellectual property.

21. At present, many of the Defendants can only be identified through their storefronts and other limited publicly available information. Avus will voluntarily amend its Complaint if Defendants provide additional credible information regarding their identities.

DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

22. Defendants intentionally deceive and mislead consumers by creating storefronts that appear as if they are authorized online retailers who offer bona fide Lock-Jaw goods. These websites commonly use Lock-Jaw's Copyrighted Material and/or Lock-Jaw's Trademark without Avus's permission. The sites also include payment options via: (1) credit cards, such as Visa®, MasterCard®, Discover®, American Express®; (2) the platform's online payment service; or (3) through other means denominated in U.S. currency, such as Apple Pay®. The content of these sites is designed to make it difficult for consumers to detect that the site does not belong to an authorized retailer or that the products being sold are counterfeit products.

23. Many of the storefronts created by Defendants to sell counterfeit Lock-Jaw goods also use the Lock-Jaw Design without authorization. Defendants use the Design and/or Trademarks in an effort to mislead consumers into believing the goods the Defendants sell via their various storefronts are legitimate goods because the Design also appears on Avus's official website.

24. Similarly, many of the storefronts created by Defendants to sell counterfeit Lock-Jaw goods also misuse one or more of the Lock-Jaw Trademarks within the text of the online marketplace listings. Defendants leverage use of the Lock-Jaw Trademarks in order to attract consumers searching for genuine Lock-Jaw products because the use of the Lock-Jaw Trademarks in this manner causes these listings to appear toward the top of internet search results for searches containing the Lock-Jaw Trademarks. Thus, these tactics contribute to the intentional misdirection of consumers using the internet to find bona fide Lock-Jaw products to instead be directed to counterfeit products on Defendants' listings.

25. Defendants, like many counterfeiters, operate under many different names on a variety of different websites and sales platforms to overwhelm the marketplace with a multitude of counterfeit products in order to evade detection by trademark owners. Upon information and belief, some of the Defendants operate under more than one alias so as to avoid identification. These sites conceal the actual persons and entities responsible for the websites and listings in favor of fictitious ones.

26. Additionally, counterfeiters like Defendants commonly disable their marketplace storefronts and attempt to disappear as soon as they learn that they have been sued. They typically re-emerge under new online marketplace accounts with new fictitious names after a short period of time. Additionally, these actors often utilize multiple Paypal® accounts, credit card accounts, and payment gateways so that even if detection requires them to close down one account, there are others set up to take its place.

27. Counterfeiters located abroad frequently maintain off-shore and foreign bank accounts. If detected, these counterfeiters quickly move funds from their accounts denominated in U.S. currency, such as PayPal® accounts, to off-shore bank accounts outside the jurisdiction of this Court.

COUNT II
FEDERAL TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT AND COUNTERFEITING
15 U.S.C. § 1114

28. Lock-Jaw repeats and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 27.

29. Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1)(a), provides in pertinent part that “[a]ny person who shall, without the consent of the registrant — use in commerce any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of a registered mark in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution, or advertising of any goods or services on or in connection with which such use is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive . . . shall be liable in a civil action by the registrant . . . .”

30. Upon information and belief, Defendants as identified in Annex A have sold and/or offered to sell goods using a reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of the Lock-Jaw Trademark in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution, or advertising of goods. Such use is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act. Lock-Jaw has not authorized these activities.

31. Defendants’ acts of infringement and counterfeiting in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act are intentional, malicious, fraudulent, willful, and deliberate.

32. Defendants have knowingly and willfully intended to trade on the recognition of, and have willfully intended to harm the reputation of the registered Lock-Jaw Trademark.

33. Defendants' acts of infringement in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act have inflicted and, if not enjoined, will continue to inflict irreparable harm on Avus. Thus, Avus has no adequate remedy at law.

34. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, Avus is entitled to recover damages in an amount to be determined at trial, including Defendants' profits, Avus's losses due to the Defendants' conduct, and costs of the action. Furthermore, the actions of Defendants were undertaken willfully and with the intention of causing confusion, mistake, or deception, making this an exceptional case entitling Avus to recover additional treble damages and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

COUNT III
FEDERAL FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN AND UNFAIR COMPETITION
15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)

35. Avus repeats and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 34 as if set forth fully herein.

36. Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), provides in pertinent part that “[a]ny person who, on or in connection with any goods or services . . . uses in commerce any word, term, name, symbol . . . or any false designation of origin . . . which is likely to cause confusion or to cause mistake, or to deceive as to affiliation . . . or as to origin, sponsorship, or approval of goods [or] services . . . shall be liable in a civil action.”

37. Defendants' use of the Lock-Jaw Trademark in order to promote, market, offer for sale, and sell the counterfeit Lock-Jaw goods has created and is creating a likelihood of confusion, mistake, and deception as to affiliation, connection, or association with Avus or the origin, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' counterfeit Lock-Jaw goods. By using the Lock-Jaw Trademark on the counterfeit goods, Defendants create a false designation of origin.

38. Defendants' actions demonstrate a malicious, intentional, willful, and bad faith intent to trade on Avus's goodwill and to cause confusion, deception, and mistake by offering counterfeit products under the Lock-Jaw Trademark and by intentionally portraying a non-existent affiliation or relationship between Avus and Defendants' goods, businesses, and websites, thereby causing significant and irreparable injury to Avus.

39. Defendants have willfully intended to trade on the recognition of, and have willfully intended to harm the reputation of Avus and the Lock-Jaw Trademark.

40. Defendants' aforementioned acts constitute false designation of origin, trademark infringement, and unfair competition in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a) (Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act).

41. Defendants' actions have caused and are likely to cause substantial injury to the public and to Avus, its business, goodwill, and reputation.

42. Avus is entitled to injunctive relief, and to recover Defendants' profits associated with the infringement and Avus's costs and reasonable attorneys' fees under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1116 and 1117.

COUNT I
INFRINGEMENT OF UNITED STATES DESIGN PATENT NO. D780,860
(35 U.S.C. § 271)

43. Avus repeats and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 42 as if set forth fully herein.

44. Defendants have infringed and/or are currently infringing, and unless enjoined will continue to infringe the '860 patent.

45. Defendants infringed the '860 patent by importing, making, using, selling, and offering for sale nearly identical versions of the protected Avus design.

46. An ordinary observer, giving such attention as a purchaser usually gives, would be so deceived by the resemblance between the design of the accused products and the '860 patent as to be induced to purchase the accused products believing they embody the design of the '860 patent.

47. Defendants' deliberate and willful actions in infringing the design of the '860 patent have caused and will continue to cause irreparable harm to Avus unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283.

48. Defendants have profited from and Avus has suffered damages as a result of Defendants' infringement of the '860 patent.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Avus prays for judgment as follows:

1. That Defendants, and each of them, and their respective agents, employees, servants, affiliates, and all persons acting for, with, or in concert with them be temporarily, preliminarily, and permanently enjoined and restrained from:

- a. using the Lock-Jaw Trademarks or any variant, reproduction, copy, or colorable imitation thereof as a trademark, trade name, corporate identity, or indicia of origin on Defendants' products or in connection with the marketing, advertisement, distribution, sale, or offering for sale of Defendants' products, unless such products are genuine products made by Avus or with Avus's authorization;
- b. further infringement of the '860 Patent, including, importing, making, using, selling, and offering for sale nearly identical versions of the protected Design.
- c. engaging in any conduct which will cause, or is likely to cause, confusion, mistake, deception, or misunderstanding as to source, or confusion as to the affiliation, connection, association, origin, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' business, services, website or other activities with Avus or the Lock-Jaw Trademarks and/or Design;
- d. passing off or inducing or causing others to pass off any product under one of the Lock-Jaw Trademark unless such product is a genuine Lock-Jaw product sold under the Lock-Jaw Trademark with the authorization of Avus;
- e. selling, disposing, destroying, transferring, or otherwise distributing any counterfeit or infringing products in inventory or otherwise currently possessed or under the control of Defendants or any of Defendants' agents, whether to customers or to any third party.

2. That, upon Avus's request, all in privity with Defendants and with notice of the injunction, including but not limited to any online marketplace platforms, such as Alibaba, Ali Express, Amazon, DH Gate, eBay, Joom, Newegg, Shopify, Wish, TaoBao, Mercari, and vendors of sponsored search terms or online ad-word providers, financial services providers, including but not limited to credit card providers, banks, merchant account providers, third party payment processors, web hosts, and Internet search engines, such as Google, Bing, and Yahoo shall:

- a. cease providing services used by Defendants, currently or in the future, to sell or offer for sale goods under the Lock-Jaw Trademarks and/or '860 Patent;
  - b. cease displaying any advertisements in any form, connected or associated with Defendants in connection with the sale of counterfeit or infringing goods under the Lock-Jaw Trademarks and/or Design; and
  - c. disable all links to the marketplace accounts identified on Annex A from displaying in search results, including from any search index.
3. That Defendants, and each of them, account to Avus for their profits and any damages sustained by Avus arising from their acts of counterfeiting and infringement;
  4. An award to Avus for past and future damages, costs, expenses, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest to compensate for Defendants' infringement of the '860 patent provided under 35 U.S.C. § 284, and increase such award by up to three times the amount found or assessed in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 284;
  6. A determination that this is an exceptional case within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. § 285 and an award to Avus its costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in this action;
  7. That Avus be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees under 15 U.S.C. § 1117;
  8. That Avus be awarded enhanced damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1117;
  9. In the alternative, that Avus be awarded statutory damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(c)(2).
  10. That Defendants disgorge any profits earned by their tortious activities;
  11. That Avus be awarded punitive damages;

12. That Avus be awarded pre-judgment interest as allowed by law;
13. That Avus be awarded the costs of this action;
14. That Avus be awarded its reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in connection with this action; and
15. That Avus be awarded such further legal and equitable relief as the Court deems proper.
