Plaintiff, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Canada, by and through its undersigned counsel, alleges as follows:¹

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This action involves claims for trademark infringement of Plaintiff's federally registered trademark in violation of § 32 of the Federal Trademark (Lanham) Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 et seq.; counterfeiting of Plaintiff's federally registered trademark in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114(1)(a)-(b), 1116(d); false designation of origin, passing off and unfair competition in violation of Section 43(a) of the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)); and related state and common law claims, arising from the infringement of the Pop It Mark, including, without limitation, by manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or selling unlicensed, counterfeit and infringing versions of Plaintiff's Pop It Products by Defendants.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has federal subject matter jurisdiction over the claims asserted in this Action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a), as well as pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 as an action arising out of violations of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 et seq.; pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1338(b) as an action arising out of claims for false designation of origin and unfair competition and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332, as there is diversity between the parties and the matter in controversy exceeds, exclusive of interests and costs, the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1367(a), as the claims asserted thereunder are so closely related to the federal claims brought in this Action as to form part of the same case or

3. Personal jurisdiction exists over Defendants in New York pursuant to N.Y.C.P.L.R. § 302(a)(1) and N.Y.C.P.L.R. § 302(a)(3), or in the alternative, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k), because, upon information and belief, Defendants regularly conduct, transact and/or solicit business in New York, and/or derive substantial revenue from their business transactions in New York and/or otherwise avail themselves of the privileges and protections of the laws of the State of New York such that this Court's assertion of jurisdiction over Defendants does not offend traditional notions of fair play and due process, and/or Defendants' illegal counterfeiting and infringing actions caused injury to Plaintiff in New York such that Defendants should reasonably expect such actions to have consequences in New York, for example:

a. Upon information and belief, Defendants were and/or are systematically directing and/or targeting their business activities at consumers in the U.S., including New York, through accounts with online marketplace platforms such as DHgate, as well as any and all as yet undiscovered User Accounts, through which consumers in the U.S., including New York, can view one or more of Defendants' Merchant Storefronts that each Defendant operates, uses to communicate with Defendants regarding their listings for Counterfeit Products and to place orders for, receive invoices for and purchase Counterfeit Products for delivery in the U.S., including New York, as a means for establishing regular business with the U.S., including New York.

b. Upon information and belief, Defendants are sophisticated sellers, each operating one or more commercial businesses through their respective User Accounts, using their Merchant Storefronts to manufacture, import, export, advertise, market, promote, distribute, offer for sale and/or otherwise deal in products, including the Counterfeit Products at significantly below-market prices to consumers worldwide, including to those in the U.S., and specifically New York.

c. Upon information and belief, all Defendants accept payment in U.S. Dollars and offer shipping to the U.S., including to New York and specifically to the New York Address.

d. Upon information and belief, Defendants have transacted business with consumers located in the U.S., including New York, for the sale and shipment of Counterfeit Products.

e. Upon information and belief, Defendants are aware of Plaintiff, its Pop It Products and Pop It Mark, and are aware that their illegal counterfeiting and infringing actions alleged herein are likely to cause injury to Plaintiff in the U.S. and specifically, in New York.

4. Venue is proper, inter alia, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because, upon information and belief, Defendants conduct, transact and/or solicit business in New York.

THE PARTIES

5. Plaintiff FoxMind is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Canada with an address of Unit 1104, 5530 St. Patrick, Montreal, Quebec, Canada H4E1A8.

6. Upon information and belief, Defendants are merchants on the DHgate online marketplace platform, through which Defendants offer for sale and/or sell Counterfeit Products, with a principal place of business at the addresses identified, if any, in the printouts of screenshots of Defendants' Merchant Storefronts in Exhibit C.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff and Its Well-Known Pop It Products

7. FoxMind is a leading distributor of toys and games that offer mind stimulating fun while developing reasoning skills, spatial logic and other skills associated with science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) under its brands, including, but not limited to: Match Madness, Architecto, Figure It and Kulami.

8. One of FoxMind's most popular and successful brands is Pop It, a soothing tactile toy and smart bubble popping game designed to stimulate children's senses and develop logic and reasoning skills. Images of the Pop It Products are attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference.

9. Pop It's popularity has soared this year due to over 2.5 billion people watching videos of people using Pop It Products on TikTok and other social media channels.²

10. Pop It Products are sold by major U.S. retailers and e-commerce sites, such as Amazon, Target, Barnes and Noble, and Staples.

11. Pop It Products typically retail for between $7.99-12.99.

12. While FoxMind has gained significant common law trademark and other rights in its Pop It Products through use, advertising, and promotion, FoxMind has also protected its valuable trademark rights to the Pop It Products by filing for and obtaining a federal trademark registration.

13. For example, FoxMind is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 6,183,005 for "POP IT!" for goods in Class 28. A true and correct copy of the registration for the Pop It Mark is attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by reference.

14. The Pop It Mark is currently in use in commerce in connection with the Pop It Products. The Pop It Mark was first used in commerce on or before the date of first use as reflected in the registration attached hereto as Exhibit B.

15. The success of the Pop It Products is due in part to FoxMind's marketing and promotional efforts. These efforts include advertising and promotion through social media and other internet-based and print advertising, among other efforts domestically and abroad, including in New York.

16. FoxMind's success is also due to its use of the highest quality materials and processes in making the Pop It Products.

17. Additionally, FoxMind owes a substantial amount of the success of the Pop It Products to its consumers and word-of-mouth buzz that its consumers have generated.

18. FoxMind's efforts, the quality of the Pop It Products, the popularity of the Pop It Mark and the word-of-mouth buzz generated by its consumers have made the Pop It Mark and Pop It Products prominently placed in the minds of the public. Members of the public and retailers have become familiar with the Pop It Mark and Pop It Products and have come to associate them exclusively with FoxMind. FoxMind has acquired a valuable reputation and goodwill among the public as a result of such associations.

19. FoxMind has gone to great lengths to protect its interests to the Pop It Products and the Pop It Mark. No one other than FoxMind and its authorized licensees and distributors are authorized to manufacture, import, export, advertise, offer for sale or sell any goods utilizing the Pop It Mark, or use the Pop It Mark in connection with goods or services or otherwise, without the express permission of FoxMind.

DHgate and Defendants' User Accounts

20. DHgate is an online marketplace and e-commerce platform that allows manufacturers, wholesalers and other third-party merchants, like Defendants, to advertise, distribute, offer for sale, sell and ship their wholesale and retail products originating from China directly to consumers worldwide and specifically to consumers residing in the U.S., including New York.

21. As one of the leaders of the worldwide e-commerce and digital retail market, DHgate has generated billions in sales worldwide. International buyers, including those in the U.S., make up a significant percentage of the business done on DHgate. For example, DHgate offers 25 million consumer products from 1.2 million suppliers for sale on its platform and attributes over half of its sales to U.S. buyers alone.

22. As recently addressed in news reports, and as reflected in the federal lawsuits filed against third-party merchants offering for sale and selling infringing and/or counterfeit products on DHgate, 85% of the world's counterfeit goods originate from China. The rise of Chinese e-commerce platforms, including DHgate, have greatly increased consumers' access to counterfeit goods.

23. The Office of the United States Trade Representative ("USTR") publishes an annual "Notorious Markets List," which highlights specific physical and online markets around the world that are reported to be engaging in and facilitating substantial copyright piracy and trademark counterfeiting and which is intended to help the U.S. and foreign governments prioritize intellectual property rights enforcement that protects job-supporting innovation and creativity in the U.S. and around the world. In January 2018, the USTR released the results of its Special 301 Out-of-Cycle Review of Notorious Markets for 2017 and it named DHgate as a "particularly infamous Notorious Market." With more than 33 million product listings originating from China available for purchase to consumers overseas, rights holders have consistently reported challenges with the counterfeit goods available on DHgate.

24. Defendants are individuals and/or businesses, who, upon information and belief, are located in China but conduct business in the U.S. and other countries by means of their User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts on DHgate as well as potential yet undiscovered additional online marketplace platforms.

25. Through their Merchant Storefronts, Defendants offer for sale and/or sell consumer products, including Counterfeit Products, and target and ship such products to customers located in the U.S., including New York, and throughout the world.

26. Defendants' Merchant Storefronts share unique identifiers, such as design elements along with similarities in price, description of the goods offered and of the Counterfeit Products themselves offered for sale.

27. Defendants are in constant communication with each other and regularly participate in online chatroom discussions involving illegal counterfeiting activities, pending litigation and potential new lawsuits.

Defendants' Wrongful and Infringing Conduct

28. Particularly in light of Plaintiff's success with its Pop It Products, as well as the reputation they have gained, Plaintiff and its Pop It Products have become targets for unscrupulous individuals and entities who wish to capitalize on the goodwill, reputation and fame that Plaintiff has amassed in its Pop It Products and Pop It Mark and Plaintiff investigates and enforces against such activities.

29. Through Epstein Drangel's investigative and enforcement efforts, Plaintiff learned of Defendants' actions which vary and include, but are not limited to: manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or selling Counterfeit Products to U.S. consumers, including those located in the state of New York, through Defendants' User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts. Printouts of Infringing Listings from Defendants' User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts are included in Exhibit C attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

30. Defendants are not, and have never been, authorized by Plaintiff or any of its authorized agents, authorized licensees or authorized distributors to copy, manufacture, import, export, advertise, distribute, offer for sale or sell the Pop It Products or to use the Pop It Mark, or any marks that are confusingly similar to the Pop It Mark.

31. Defendants' Counterfeit Products are nearly indistinguishable from Plaintiff's Pop It Products, only with minor variations that no ordinary consumer would recognize.

32. During its investigation, Epstein Drangel identified Defendants as offering for sale and/or selling Counterfeit Products and specified a shipping address located at the New York Address and verified that each Defendant provides shipping to the New York Address. Printouts of the checkout pages for the Counterfeit Products and pages from Defendants' Merchant Storefronts reflecting that the Defendants ship the Counterfeit Products to the New York Address are included in Exhibit C.

33. Epstein Drangel confirmed that each Defendant is still currently offering for sale and/or selling Counterfeit Products through their respective User Accounts and/or Merchant Storefronts, accepting payment for such Counterfeit Products in U.S. Dollars and that each Defendant provides shipping and/or has actually shipped Counterfeit Products to the U.S., including to customers located in New York. Plaintiff's findings are supported by Defendants' Infringing Listings and/or the checkout pages for Counterfeit Products, which are included in Exhibit C.

34. For example, below on the left is an image of one of Plaintiff's Pop It Products. Depicted further below is a listing for Defendant Topcasesell's Counterfeit Product ("Topcasesell Infringing Listing” and “Topcasesell Counterfeit Product,” respectively). The Topcasesell Infringing Listing appears on Defendant Topcasesell’s Merchant Storefront, <https://www.dhgate.com/store/21650252>, and offers Topcasesell Counterfeit Product for $1.93 – $2.76 per item, using, featuring and/or incorporating the Pop It Mark and/or confusingly similar marks in the descriptions and/or product images in the body of the listing. Further, Topcasesell Counterfeit Product is virtually identical to one of Plaintiff’s Pop It Products and features and/or incorporates the Pop It Mark. There is no question that the Topcasesell Counterfeit Product is designed to confuse and mislead consumers into believing that they are purchasing one of Plaintiff’s Pop It Products or that Topcasesell Counterfeit Product is otherwise approved by or sourced from Plaintiff, thereby trading off of the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff by engaging in the unauthorized use of the Pop It Mark:

Defendant’s Counterfeit Product

35. By way of another example, below on the left is an image of one of Plaintiff’s Pop It Products. Depicted further below is a listing for Defendant Aliceliu8888’s Counterfeit Product (“Aliceliu8888 Infringing Listing” and “Aliceliu8888 Counterfeit Product,” respectively). The Aliceliu8888 Infringing Listing appears on Defendant’s Merchant Storefront, <https://www.dhgate.com/store/20408590>, and offers the Aliceliu8888 Counterfeit Product for $1.69 (for 200 pieces+) - $2.49 (for 50 pieces+), using, featuring and/or incorporating the Pop It Mark and/or confusingly similar marks in the descriptions and/or product images in the body of the listing. Further, the Aliceliu8888 Counterfeit Product is virtually identical to one of Plaintiff's Pop It Products and features and/or incorporates the Pop It Mark. There is no question that the Aliceliu8888 Counterfeit Product is designed to confuse and mislead consumers into believing that they are purchasing one of Plaintiff's Pop It Products or that the Aliceliu8888 Counterfeit Product is otherwise approved by or sourced from Plaintiff, thereby trading off of the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff by engaging in the unauthorized use of the Pop It Mark:

Pop It Product

Defendant's Counterfeit Product

36. As another example, below on the left is an image of one of Plaintiff's Pop It Products. Depicted further below is a listing for Defendant Dressave's Counterfeit Product ("Dressave Infringing Listing" and "Dressave Counterfeit Product," respectively). The Dressave Infringing Listing appears on Defendant Dressave's Merchant Storefront, <https://www.dhgate.com/store/14771678>, and offers the Dressave Counterfeit Product for $1.85 (for 500 pieces+) - $2.30 (for 100 pieces+), using, featuring and/or incorporating the Pop It Mark and/or confusingly similar marks in the descriptions and/or product images in the body of the listing.

Further, the Dressave Counterfeit Product is virtually identical to one of Plaintiff's Pop It Products and features and/or incorporates the Pop It Mark. There is no question that the Dressave Counterfeit Product is designed to confuse and mislead consumers into believing that they are purchasing one of Plaintiff's Pop It Products or that the Dressave Counterfeit Product is otherwise approved by or sourced from Plaintiff, thereby trading off of the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff by engaging in the unauthorized use of the Pop It Mark:

Pop It Product

Defendant's Counterfeit Product

37. By these dealings in Counterfeit Products (including, without limitation, copying, manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or selling Counterfeit Products), Defendants violated Plaintiff's exclusive rights in the Pop It Mark, and have used marks that are confusingly similar to, identical to and/or constitute counterfeiting and/or infringement of the Pop It Mark in order to confuse consumers into believing that such Counterfeit Products are the Pop It Products and aid in the promotion and sales of their Counterfeit Products. Defendants' conduct began long after Plaintiff's adoption and use of the Pop It Mark, after Plaintiff obtained a federal registration in the Pop It Mark, as alleged above, and after Plaintiff's Pop It Products and Pop It Mark became well-known to the purchasing public.

38. Prior to and contemporaneous with their counterfeiting and infringing actions alleged herein, Defendants had knowledge of Plaintiff's ownership of the Pop It Mark, of the fame and incalculable goodwill associated therewith and of the popularity and success of the Pop It Products, and in bad faith adopted the Pop It Mark.

39. Defendants have been engaging in the illegal counterfeiting and infringing actions, as alleged herein, knowingly and intentionally, or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Plaintiff's rights, or in bad faith, for the purpose of trading on the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff, its Pop It Mark and Pop It Products.

40. Defendants' dealings in Counterfeit Products, as alleged herein, has caused, and will continue to cause confusion, mistake, economic loss, and has, and will continue to deceive consumers, the public and the trade with respect to the source or origin of Defendants' Counterfeit Products, thereby causing consumers to erroneously believe that such Counterfeit Products are licensed by or otherwise associated with Plaintiff, thereby damaging Plaintiff.

41. By engaging in these actions, Defendants have, jointly and severally, among other things, willfully and in bad faith committed the following, all of which have and will continue to cause irreparable harm to Plaintiff: infringed and counterfeited the Pop It Mark, committed unfair competition and unfairly and unjustly profited from such activities at Plaintiff's expense.

42. Unless enjoined, Defendants will continue to cause irreparable harm to Plaintiff.

CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION (Trademark Counterfeiting)

[15 U.S.C. § 1114(1)(b)/Lanham Act § 32; 15 U.S.C. § 1116(d)/Lanham Act § 34; 15 U.S.C. § 1117(b)-(c)/Lanham Act § 35]

43. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

44. Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of all right and title to the Pop It Mark.

45. Plaintiff has continuously used the Pop It Mark in interstate commerce since on or before the date of first use as reflected in the registration certificate attached hereto as Exhibit B.

46. Without Plaintiff's authorization or consent, with knowledge of Plaintiff's well-known and prior rights in its Pop It Mark and with knowledge that Defendants' Counterfeit Products bear counterfeit marks, Defendants intentionally reproduced, copied and/or colorably imitated the Pop It Mark and/or used spurious designations that are identical with, or indistinguishable from, the Pop It Mark on or in connection with the manufacturing, import, export, advertising, marketing, promotion, distribution, display, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products.

47. Defendants have manufactured, imported, exported, advertised, marketed, promoted, distributed, displayed, offered for sale and/or sold their Counterfeit Products to the purchasing public in direct competition with Plaintiff, in or affecting interstate commerce, and/or have acted with reckless disregard of Plaintiff's rights in and to the Pop It Mark through their participation in such activities.

48. Defendants have applied their reproductions, counterfeits, copies and colorable imitations of the Pop It Mark to packaging, point-of-purchase materials, promotions and/or advertisements intended to be used in commerce upon, or in connection with the manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or selling of Defendants' Counterfeit Products, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, and deception among the general purchasing public as to the origin of the Counterfeit Products, and is likely to deceive consumers, the public and the trade into believing that the Counterfeit Products sold by Defendants originate from, are associated with or are otherwise authorized by Plaintiff, thereby making substantial profits and gains to which they are not entitled in law or equity.

49. Defendants' unauthorized use of the Pop It Mark on or in connection with the Counterfeit Products was done with notice and full knowledge that such use was not authorized or licensed by Plaintiff or its authorized agents and with deliberate intent to unfairly benefit from the incalculable goodwill inherent in the Pop It Mark.

50. Defendants' actions constitute willful counterfeiting of the Pop It Mark in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114(1)(a)-(b), 1116(d) and 1117(b)-(c).

51. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' illegal actions alleged herein, Defendants have caused substantial monetary loss and irreparable injury and damage to Plaintiff, its business, its reputation and its valuable rights in and to the Pop It Mark and the goodwill associated therewith, in an amount as yet unknown, but to be determined at trial, for which Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and unless immediately enjoined, Defendants will continue to cause such substantial and irreparable injury, loss and damage to Plaintiff and its valuable Pop It Mark.

52. Based on Defendants' actions as alleged herein, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief, damages for the irreparable harm that Plaintiff has sustained, and will sustain, as a result of Defendants' unlawful and infringing actions, as alleged herein, and all gains, profits and advantages obtained by Defendants as a result thereof, enhanced discretionary damages, treble damages and/or statutory damages of up to $2,000,000 per counterfeit mark per type of goods sold, offered for sale or distributed and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Infringement of Registered Trademark)
[115 U.S.C. § 1114/Lanham Act § 32(a)]

53. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

54. Plaintiff has continuously used the Pop It Mark in interstate commerce since on or before the date of first use as reflected in the registration certificate attached hereto as Exhibit B.

55. Plaintiff, as owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Pop It Mark, has standing to maintain an action for trademark infringement under 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

56. Defendants were, at the time they engaged in their actions as alleged herein, actually aware that Plaintiff is the owner of the federal trademark registration for the Pop It Mark.

57. Defendants did not seek and thus inherently failed to obtain consent or authorization from Plaintiff, as the registered trademark owner of the Pop It Registration, to deal in and commercially manufacture, import, export, advertise, market, promote, distribute, display, retail, offer for sale and/or sell the Pop It Products and/or related products bearing the Pop It Mark into the stream of commerce.

58. Defendants knowingly and intentionally manufactured, imported, exported, advertised, marketed, promoted, distributed, displayed, offered for sale and/or sold Counterfeit Products, bearing and/or utilizing marks that are reproductions, counterfeits, copies and/or colorable imitations of the Pop It Mark and/or which are identical or confusingly similar to the Pop It Registration.

59. Defendants knowingly and intentionally reproduced, copied and colorably imitated the Pop It Mark and applied such reproductions, copies or colorable imitations to packaging, wrappers, receptacles, online listings and/or advertisements used in commerce upon, or in connection with the manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Defendants' Counterfeit Products.

60. Defendants were, at the time they engaged in their illegal and infringing actions as alleged herein, actually aware that Plaintiff is the owner of all rights in and to the Pop It Mark.

61. Defendants' egregious and intentional use of the Pop It Mark in commerce on or in connection with Defendants' Counterfeit Products has caused, and is likely to continue to cause, actual confusion and mistake, and has deceived, and is likely to continue to deceive, the general purchasing public as to the source or origin of the Counterfeit Products, and is likely to deceive the public into believing that Defendants' Counterfeit Products are Plaintiff's Pop It Products or are otherwise associated with, or authorized by, Plaintiff.

62. Defendants' actions have been deliberate and committed with knowledge of Plaintiff's rights and goodwill in the Pop It Mark, as well as with bad faith and the intent to cause confusion, mistake and deception.

63. Defendants' continued, knowing, and intentional use of the Pop It Mark without Plaintiff's consent or authorization constitutes intentional infringement of Plaintiff's federally registered Pop It Registration in violation of §32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

64. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' illegal and infringing actions as alleged herein, Plaintiff has suffered substantial monetary loss and irreparable injury, loss and damage to its business and its valuable rights in and to the Pop It Mark and the goodwill associated therewith in an amount as yet unknown, but to be determined at trial, for which Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and unless immediately enjoined, Defendants will continue to cause such substantial and irreparable injury, loss and damage to Plaintiff and the valuable Pop It Mark.

65. Based on Defendants' actions as alleged herein, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief, damages for the irreparable harm that Plaintiff has sustained, and will sustain, as a result of Defendants' unlawful and infringing actions as alleged herein, and all gains, profits and advantages obtained by Defendants as a result thereof, enhanced discretionary damages, as well as other remedies provided by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1116, 1117, and 1118, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(False Designation of Origin, Passing Off & Unfair Competition) [15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)/Lanham Act § 43(a)]

66. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

67. Plaintiff, as the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Pop It Mark, has standing to maintain an action for false designation of origin and unfair competition under the Federal Trademark Statute, Lanham Act § 43(a) (15 U.S.C. § 1125).

68. The Pop It Mark is inherently distinctive and/or has acquired distinctiveness.

69. Defendants knowingly and willfully used in commerce products and/or packaging designs that are identical or confusingly similar to, and constitute reproductions of the Pop It Mark and affixed, applied and used false designations of origin and false and misleading descriptions and representations on or in connection with the manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products with the intent to cause confusion, to cause mistake and to deceive the purchasing public into believing, in error, that Defendants' substandard Counterfeit Products are Pop It Products or related products, and/or that Defendants' Counterfeit Products are authorized, sponsored, approved, endorsed or licensed by Plaintiff and/or that Defendants are affiliated, connected or associated with Plaintiff, thereby creating a likelihood of confusion by consumers as to the source of such Counterfeit Products, and allowing Defendants to capitalize on the goodwill associated with, and the consumer recognition of, the Pop It Mark, to Defendants' substantial profit in blatant disregard of Plaintiff's rights.

70. By manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling and/or otherwise dealing in the Counterfeit Products that are identical to, confusingly similar to or which constitute colorable imitations of Plaintiff's Pop It Products using marks that are identical and/or confusingly similar to, or which constitute colorable imitations of the Pop It Mark, Defendants have traded off the extensive goodwill of Plaintiff and its Pop It Products and did in fact induce, and intend to, and will continue to induce customers to purchase Defendants' Counterfeit Products, thereby directly and unfairly competing with Plaintiff. Such conduct has permitted and will continue to permit Defendants to make substantial sales and profits based on the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff and its Pop It Mark, which Plaintiff has amassed through its nationwide marketing, advertising, sales and consumer recognition.

71. Defendants knew, or by the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that their adoption and commencement of and continuing use in commerce of marks that are identical or confusingly similar to and constitute reproductions of the Pop It Mark would cause confusion, mistake or deception among purchasers, users and the public.

72. Upon information and belief, Defendants' aforementioned wrongful actions have been knowing, deliberate, willful, intended to cause confusion, to cause mistake and to deceive the purchasing public and with the intent to trade on the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff's Pop It Products and Pop It Mark.

73. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' aforementioned actions, Defendants have caused irreparable injury to Plaintiff by depriving Plaintiff of sales of its Pop It Products and by depriving Plaintiff of the value of its Pop It Mark as a commercial asset in an amount as yet unknown, but to be determined at trial, for which it has no adequate remedy at law, and unless immediately restrained, Defendants will continue to cause substantial and irreparable injury to Plaintiff and the goodwill and reputation associated with the value of the Pop It Mark.

74. Based on Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief as well as monetary damages and other remedies as provided by the Lanham Act, including damages that Plaintiff has sustained and will sustain as a result of Defendants' illegal and infringing actions as alleged herein, and all gains, profits and advantages obtained by Defendants as a result thereof, enhanced discretionary damages and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Unfair Competition) [New York Common Law]

75. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

76. By manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling and/or otherwise dealing in the Counterfeit Products, Defendants have traded off the extensive goodwill of Plaintiff and its Pop It Products to induce, and did induce and intend and will continue to induce, customers to purchase their Counterfeit Products, thereby directly competing with Plaintiff. Such conduct has permitted and will continue to permit Defendants to make substantial sales and profits based on the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff, which Plaintiff has amassed through its nationwide marketing, advertising, sales and consumer recognition.

77. Defendants' advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling and/or otherwise dealing in the Counterfeit Products was and is in violation and derogation of Plaintiff's rights and is likely to cause confusion and mistake, and to deceive consumers and the public as to the source, origin, sponsorship or quality of Defendants' Counterfeit Products.

78. Defendants knew, or by the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that their advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling and/or otherwise dealing in the Counterfeit Products and their continuing advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling and/or otherwise dealing in the Counterfeit Products would cause confusion and mistake, or deceive purchasers, users and the public.

79. Upon information and belief, Defendants' aforementioned wrongful actions have been knowing, deliberate, willful, intended to cause confusion and mistake, and to deceive, in blatant disregard of Plaintiff's rights, and for the wrongful purpose of injuring Plaintiff, and its competitive position while benefiting Defendants.

80. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' aforementioned wrongful actions, Plaintiff has been and will continue to be deprived of substantial sales of its Pop It Products in an amount as yet unknown but to be determined at trial, for which Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and Plaintiff has been and will continue to be deprived of the value of its Pop It Mark as a commercial asset in an amount as yet unknown but to be determined at trial, for which Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

81. As a result of Defendants' actions alleged herein, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief, an order granting Plaintiff's damages and Defendants' profits stemming from their infringing activities, and exemplary or punitive damages for Defendants' intentional misconduct.
